

Please do not grant the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) the exemption for the federal "established business relationship" that would allow any company that I do business with the freedom to call and violate my personal time as they see fit.